

I am opposed to any changes with the present ownership policies.
What happened to the old idea of the airwaves as a public trust?
Why not require the Media Giants to present this issue to the American Public on all the public Airways before making a decision?
They are the ones who will be impacted the most,